

The State of Maryland

Proclamation

From the Governor of the State of Maryland

TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

MAY 4-10, 2008

WHEREAS, Teachers deserve our respect and gratitude for the lasting and significant contribution they make as educators, encouraging a love of learning and commitment to academic excellence; and

WHEREAS, It is important that we recognize the commitment our teachers make to their students as well as the positive and lasting difference they make in the lives and educational experience of our children; and

WHEREAS, Teachers should be accorded high public esteem, reflecting the importance of education in the future of our country. Each year, the teaching profession becomes more challenging. Maryland teachers are committed to persevere and provide a quality education to all students; and

WHEREAS, Maryland is pleased to join in offering a well-deserved tribute in honor and support of our dedicated educators.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARTIN O'MALLEY, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, do hereby proclaim
MAY 4-10, 2008 as TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK in Maryland, and do commend this celebration to all of our citizens.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland,
